“ David and Vicki, I'm so sorry to learn this, although we have been expecting it, based on conversations with a mutual friend. Parents can never be prepared for such a loss.

I'm sorry that I never met Adam, but he had to have been an exceptional guy, having had parents such as you.

You are now, and have been in my prayers daily, and tears sting my eyes now, just knowing a bit of what you're going through.

You're in my heart constantly with prayers for healing in your hearts, minds, and lives. Please pass condolences on to his wife and children.

We love you.

“ We both worked with Adam at Mt. Carmel. He was like a son to me and he always called me, "Mah" (with the right intonation!). He was a sweet young man and we are so saddened by his passing. We loved him a bunch 💕.

“ David and Vicki, I'm so, so sorry to hear about Adam's passing. Although I didn't really know Adam, I'm sure having a mom and dad like you made him very special and after reading the other memories that have been shared, I can tell he was. I will continue to keep all of you in my prayers and I hope you find comfort knowing that you will see him again and you'll have such wonderful memories of him in your heart.

“ I met Adam during swim meets and occasions at high school when my daughter, Cynthia, was in high school. Adam has always impressed me with caring and encouraging spirit. His impact on others has made their lives better. Thank you for your service in the Air Force.

“ I was so saddened to hear of your passing, Adam. Believe it or not, I followed your adventures with your family first through MySpace and then through Facebook. I was so happy for you to join the Air Force, marry your high school sweetheart, and have 3 amazing children. Besides all the happy pictures of your family on many adventures or having awesome birthday parties, my favorite set of pictures were of the Father and Daughter dance. Mia was so happy! You could see it all over her face! You, yourself, were very proud! I bet you had the most fun that night! You left your children with much love and wonderful memories.

As for me, when I heard that you had passed, my memories immediately went to that time I was panicking at school and running through the hall because I was late for class. You saw me in the hall, smiled, and asked me what was wrong. You took the moment to claim me down (probably making you late too). You told me not to worry. You helped me find my center and for someone with anxiety that is very important. You helped me claim down. I got to class surprisingly on time and not on the verge of an anxiety attack.

That is the person I will always remember you as. Not leaving a man (or friend) behind. Thank you, Adam, for your friendship. You will be greatly missed.
