

Aiden Robert Kinne Cooper

June 17, 2002 - February 12, 2017

Aiden Robert Kinne Cooper, 14, of Jefferson City, passed away February 12, 2017 at the University of Tennessee Medical Center.

Aiden is survived by his mother, Miranda J. Kinne of Jefferson City; his father, Billy W. Cooper of Strawberry Plains; brothers and sisters Kaylee Green of Sevierville, Kyrsten and Blake Cooper and Elijah King of Knoxville, and Michael McDonald of Jefferson City; grandparents Rose and Jimmy Stipes of Strawberry Plains and James and Linda Kinne and Marvin Pfeffer of New Market; uncles and aunts Brenda Cooper, Linda Sugioka, Terry Jones (Katie), and Michael and Laura Pfeffer of Knoxville, and Benjamin Stipes (Christy) of Strawberry Plains; and several cousins. He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Colleen Ditzel-Pfeffer of New Market.

Aiden was born on June 17, 2002, in Knoxville. He enjoyed drawing, biking, playing the saxophone, swimming, and fishing. He liked to write plays and skits and lead a group in acting them out. Aiden was known for his wonderful sense of humor. A mischievous practical joker, he loved to make others laugh. Aiden's family will remember his sweet personality and readiness with a joke. Aiden will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him. Although his life was much too short, his family and friends will remember all of the love and laughter they shared with him and know that they were blessed to know him. Aiden loved spending time with his girlfriend, Baillie Hensley, and his best friend, Paxton Jones. He was a student at Jefferson Middle School and his family thanks the students and staff there for their support. The family would like to offer special thanks to Amanda Raines for coordinating donations for the funeral service.

The family will receive friends on Thursday, Feb. 16, 2017 from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. at Fielden Funeral Home in New Market. The funeral will begin at 7:00 p.m., officiated by Elder Ken Chambers, Sr., of Mountain Creek Church of Christ, Chattanooga. An online guest book can be signed at www.fieldenfuneralhome.com.
