“ So sorry for your loss, Ann was one of the greatest persons I've ever known, she was a very giving person. I admired Ann as I know she admired me. She took the time to teach me and help me grow for that I will be eternally grateful to her. Ann loved to teach and treated her staff like they were her children. She was tough but fair. She was one of the smartest people I have met and she was my mentor and made an impact in my life. Last time I spoke to her, she sounded happy but not herself, I got off the phone with tears because I knew she was struggling mentally and that seemed so unfair to me due to the fact that she is such a talented person. We enjoy her story telling in her office. She had a passion for children, her pets and her husband Ted. Ted, I am deeply sorry for your loss, I know it was tough for you at times dealing with her illness. I will keep you and your family in my thoughts and prayers.
