“ My mom was always young at heart. She never believed she was 88. When I asked her many times to go visit nursing homes...her answer was no...I don't have anything to say...those people in there are too old. Her daughter...Frances

I've never questioned my grandmother's love. She's always been so sweet, caring and putting others' wants and needs before her own. I know she's in Heaven with my grandfather and my sister and she's looking down with a smile. I'll always miss and love you.

My brother said...since weve been born...this will be the first year of our life we wont have a mom...but her wisdom...her wit....her love will laast our lifetime. She was the greatest mom of all time. Will i miss her...yes...i missed her before she left. But our loss is heavens gain. Im sure they could make room for such a special angel. As this will be the greatest mothers day in her life. We love her...and will miss her....but shes in heaven with eternal peace...and other loved ones. I love you mom. No more worries. Were just all gonna have to fin for ourself. But i sure will miss hearing....Frances....you be careful. I love you mom.
