“ Bee was my sister. I loved her very much. She well be missed. One of the funny thing, out of many, was when we where small we were outside sitting on a small hill and it started to thunder and Bee and I thought God was hitting boards together, lol. Thoughts of young minds. We had some really good times together as well sibling times at one another as all families dose at times. I did love her very much. Bee had her daughter who is a beautiful person inside and out. She loved the grandchildren. RIP my sister, you where loved 💕💕
🙏

She was a wonderful classmate from the Central High class of 1969. Always a fun gal to kid and cut up with. May she rest in peace.
