

Blanche Lorene Longmire

November 17, 1928 - September 13, 2021

This is an Address Change Notification. On September 13, 2021, Blanche Lorene Hodge Longmire entered into the gates of Heaven. She left peacefully with her husband of 72 years at her bedside and her children gathered around her. Today the family is rejoicing because there's no more pain or suffering. To be absent from this body is to live eternally, she'll be present in the presence of the King. Blanche was a member of Jefferson City Assembly of God. Along with her husband she was co-owner of Cherokee Market in the Shiloh community of Grainger County. Blanche was a seamstress, an excellent cook, and she loved to bake. She enjoyed canning the many vegetables Conard grew in their garden. She had a love of flowers and could call each one by name. Blanche was an incredible wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. She was a prayer warrior with a strong love for the Lord, many were touched by her prayers and without those prayers, I don't know where we would be now.

She was preceded in death by her parents J. Frank and Helen Cameron Hodge. Brother, Raymond Hodge Of Camarillo, CA; Father and Mother-In-Law, Edgar and Grace Longmire. Son-in-Law, Carl Foister; Niece, Janet Lynn Hodge Collins. Brothers and Sister-in-Laws, Earl (Barbara) Longmire, Walker (Harriet) Longmire, Avon Longmire, Ezra (Norma Dene) McElhaney, Doug Roach and Shields Greenlee.

Blanche is survived by her husband of 72 years, Conard Longmire. They had a boundless love for one another that was made stronger through years of hard work.

Children, David (Nancy) Longmire, Dandridge, TN; Diann Foister, Jefferson City, TN; and Derald Longmire, Dandridge, TN.

Great Grandchildren, Ezekiel, Sawyer, and Colter Hogsten, Emily, and John Daniel Foister, Brice, Libby, Ellie, Maggie Mae, and Blake Longmire.

Brother, Wayne (Donalene) Hodge, Sister-In-Law; Marilyn Ellis, Minnie Greenlee, Lois Anderson, Ledena Roach; Brothers-in-Law; Carl (Gladys) Longmire, Wendell Longmire, Daughter-In-Law, Linda Barding Longmire along with many nieces and nephews.

Members of the Shiloh Community, Shiloh United Methodist Church, and the Grainger County Baptist Association.

Blanche you were the nicest lady and a good woman. I know heaven was happy to receive you. There can be nothing better than being face to face with Jesus. You will be missed by many.

ME

To all the Longmire Family, From the first time I meet Blanche I knew she was one very special lady. I was married to her brother Raymond Hodge. After Ray passed away I came back to Rutledge Tenn. to visit Conard & Blanche ,and Raymond brother and is wife, and the rest of the family, they all made me fill so welcome. The days I spent with Conard & Blanche, she would make me a big country breakfast every morning it was so..... good. I will never forget the hospitality she ,and the family showed me. Her daughter Diann and I have been the best of friends ever since,and I love her dearly as I did Blanche and Conard and the rest of the family. I will miss her dearly.
