

Bryan French Lyle

September 9, 1945 - November 27, 2020

Bryan French Lyle, age 75, of Dandridge, passed away peacefully on Friday, November 27, 2020. He was a deacon at Responding to His Call Church. He was preceded in death by his loving wife of 56 years, Patsy Lyle, who recently passed away on November 19, 2020, and are now reunited in heaven. He was also preceded by his parents, Minnie Ellen and Calvin Lonnie Lyle; sister, Gladys (Cebern) Matthews; brothers, Sammy (Dorothy) Lyle and Warren (Joann) Lyle. He is survived by his daughters, Patty (Michael) Harris and Louise (Randall) Hurst; grandchildren, Jesse (Kristi) Oakes, Randy (Keasha) Hardin Jr., Michael Hardin, Mitchell (Bambi) Hardin and Scott Hurst; great-grandchildren, Jaylen Oakes, Joelle and Launa Casson, Nevaeh, Emily, and Bryson Mynatt; several nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. The family would like to extend a special thank you to the staffs of Amedisys and Summitview of Rocky Top, along with several precious family and friends for all the love and support during these difficult times. Due to growing Covid-19 concerns, a graveside service open to everyone will be at 2:00 PM Monday, November 30, 2020, at Fain Cemetery with Rev. Roy Stell and Rev. Joe Cureton officiating. Arrangements by Fielden Funeral Home in New Market.
