“ Once there were two people who became very good friends. They enjoyed each other's company, talked about life, loved the Lord and knew almost instantly that their friendship was special..... I've always known our friendship was a gift from God. I miss you, our conversations, our time together, our trips, our projects, our.....

So sorry for your loss Haven't seen Carl since high school but was kinda corresponding with him some since he's been sick. Gary used to work with him and thought a lot of him. I'm sorry that we didn't get by to see him. He's free of pain now ... prayers for all the family

“ My heart is full of sorry for you and your family. May God ease your pain during these valley days. So thankful that your children will always be a constant reminder of the love Carl had for them and you, even during these final days. It has been a tough journey for each of you, but your love of God never wavered. "Blessed are those that mourn for they shall be comforted." In Faith and Sympathy, Gwenn
