“ *Mike and family,
I had the privilege of meeting Carolyn at WW on Thursday mornings. I felt like I had known her all my life. I met a granddaughter one summer and heard all about the hunting trip, recently, out west. She loved her family dearly and when she spoke of you Mike, a huge smile came across her face. She was always so positive and it was very much appreciate on Thursday's when our scales for the week, we're not what we had hoped for. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.*

“ Steve, I was so shocked to learn of Carolyn's death!!!! I have been flooded with precious memories of our time together; in high school, our apartment that we shared before your wedding. And my honor of being her Maid of Honor in your wedding and then as she attended me as my Matron of Honor when Joe and I were married. I regret that we did not stay in touch as we should. This has taught me to reach out to dear friends much more often in the future! I have shared pictures of her to so many via the internet, telling everyone about how beautiful she was. I am so sorry that I did not know of her illness, to offer any help or comfort that I may have been able. I am so sorry to hear of your loss.
(I sincerely believe that Joe Drafts is teaching a New Comer's class in Heaven! I am confident that God has placed my dear friend in his class, and just think of the reunion that she is experiencing already!!!! Meeting her father for the first time, and seeing her mother again.....I could go on and on, but I will leave you now for your to try to comfort your large family. My prayers have been, and will be, with you and your family.)
