“ This wonderful woman was my Mamaw or Grandma as some people call them. She was the most beautiful person I have ever met. She is the nicest one too. She would always give something away if someone else needed it. Including money. She was so special to me and me and her have lot's of great memories together that I will cherish forever. I miss her so much. Don't take someone for granted because when the day comes and you aren't ready for it you will feel really bad. You will want to take all the bad things that ever happened between the two of you, but you won't be able to. You can't imagine how it feels to lose a loved one if you haven't already. And let me tell you it sucks. But spend as much time as you can with them and don't take that time for granted.
