“ I wasnt around Chip very much but knew he was a good dad to his children. He will be missed greatly when Keshia and the kids come to visit. My heart pours out to his family that he has left behind. Just look to God for peace and comfort in the days ahead, and know we are here for you .We love you dearly.

“ Over the years I have gotten to know Chip through his wife, Keisha (my best friend). Through many birthday parties and a kindergarten graduation Chip always beamed with pride and made sure his family was well cared for. I enjoyed our conversations, he was so intelligent, our most recent being The Mandela Effect which he taught me about. He was always there to lend a hand including helping us move into our house and not expect anything in return. Chip was an amazing friend that I am going to greatly miss.
