“ I just got to know Dan in the last year and 1/2 of his life. What a sweet, gentle man. I absolutely loved sitting with him and Molly and my son Hunter came to love them as well. It was such an amazing thing to watch Dan transform from a newly baptised man to a man who was constantly running toward God. I looked forward to seeing all his notations next to his scripture in his Bible. I thank God that I got a chance to know this man. I pray for all his loved ones as they learn to live without him here. Dan my friend, I will see you again in heaven and can't wait for my hug.

“ I have many fond memories of the great evenings spent in conversation with Dan while getting schooled in the finer strategies of Backgammon. One conversation I can remember was about "The Grace of God" and the Lord Jesus being resurrected after His death. The conversation brings to mind Eph 2:8-9 - "For it is by grace you are saved, through faith and this not of yourselves. It was a gift from God, not by work lest anyone should boast.

“ Dan was my cousin. He was 8 years older than me, and while I was growing up, he was in the Navy. I remember in Dearborn Heights, Mi he came to visit our family. So handsome in his uniform. I loved talking with him on Skype, and wish I would have done it more. I love you Dan and will miss you always.

“ Dan was such a sweet man that I had, unfortunately, just barely started getting to know. Seeing him and Molly walk in the room always brought a smile to my face. I'm so sorry for your family's loss.

Dan was a very unique person. He brought so much joy to the Darby house. He was always ready to lend a hand to whoever needed help. Dan and Molly will truly be missed.

Dan was quick with a joke and loved music we sure knew when he and Molly entered the room. His last gift to me was getting the whole dining room to sing happy birthday to me. I and the Darby House will miss you I will see you in Heaven my Friend.
