

Dorotha Wilma Bales

June 1, 1938 - July 31, 2016

Dorotha Wilma Bales, 78, of Sevierville, passed away Sunday, July 31, 2016.

[L] [SEP] She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Herman Bales; and several siblings.

She is survived by her children, Karen (William) Seivers, Dwain Bales, Teresa (David Jr.) Latham; grandchildren, Teresa McCammon, Kara Smith-Stevens, Chris Brooks, Jennifer Williams, Leslie Davis, Danny Johnston II; 12 great-grandchildren; 1 great-great-grandchild; sister, Velma Kelley; and several nieces and nephews.

I am but a simple woman evolving from a simple girl. Made no great discoveries or changed this complex world. Raised my children as best I could to be brave and strong; to know the difference in what is right and wrong. Been there for grandchildren when no one else seemed to care. Holding them, wiping tears, loving them, yes I've been there.

Tried to be a loving wife, sharing through thick or thin, a companion, not always agreeing but always a friend - Caretaker for my mother in times of trouble, a cook, nurse, gardner, wife, mother, all this and double. What worries me most as my hair turns white and my body gets lumpy, is thinking about the "obituary" someday it makes me grumpy -

I am sure it will describe me as housewife at the time. But if only people could read between the lines. Life is full of Discoveries, challenging, and fun. Not all geniuses has smelled the flowers or appreciated the sun, It must take a lot of simple people to run this complex world - Guess that is why God made this simple woman, this simple girl.
