

Eddie June McMahan

February 11, 1954 - May 29, 2020

On May 29th, 2020. Eddie J. McMahan a Tennessee native passed away at 130am Friday morning. Due too his long time battle with skin, lung and brain cancer. He passed peacefully in his sleep in his Rutledge home. Eddie spent his last few days doing what he loved the most. He spent Monday on the banks of the river fishing with the family listening to the laughter of three very special boys, Bryson, Ayden and Caden fill the air. A few short days later he left our world. He is survived by his only son Jessie McMahan. But had close family around him to the very end. Rick and Whitney Vineyard and their three boys. Along with Jeff and Jennifer Phillips and their daughters. Stood along side him though all the bad days and all the good days. There will be no burial service. With a soon to follow private family gathering. Details and dates will be sent out by his son once all arrangements have been made. His family is grateful for all who keep them in their thoughts ands prayers.
