

Elizabeth Gail Goldsmith

May 26, 1953 - February 11, 2024

Elizabeth "Gail" Goldsmith, age 70, went to be with the Lord on Sunday, February 11, 2024. Gail was born May 26, 1953, to Clyde and Edna Long in Brevard, NC. She was married to her loving husband, John "Bill" Goldsmith, for 51 years. Gail loved her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren and was a proud member/volunteer of The Avenue Church in Morristown.

The best word to describe Gail would be fierce. She held onto her faith/beliefs fiercely. She lived fiercely. She fought fiercely and overcame the odds several times. She was strong-willed, loud, funny and had the best laugh. Gail was not shy and shared her opinion with everyone.

Gail loved children and wanted to be sure they were well cared for as a school bus driver in North Carolina, Colorado, and Tennessee. She would greet each child with a warm smile and a hug and also would give them a treat and anything else to ensure they felt nurtured and had a good day. Gail was creative and very artistic. She would create unique works of art using hubcaps, paint, and the like such as flowers or rocks.

Gail was preceded in death by her parents: Clyde and Edna Long, and brother: Dewey Long.

Gail is survived by her husband, John Goldsmith; sons, Bryan Goldsmith and Brad (Melissa) Goldsmith; grandchildren, Taylor (Hannah) Goldsmith, Zachary Goldsmith, Maven Theibault, Cyrus Goldsmith, and Emmy Goldsmith; great-grandchildren, Maxwell Goldsmith and Owen Theibault; brother: Todd (Holly) Long; sisters-in-law, Karon Goldsmith, Patsy Goldsmith and Betty Goldsmith; brother-in-law, Paul Goldsmith and many nieces and nephews. She will be fondly remembered and missed.

A special thank you to Karon, Patsy, and Betty for all of your help as caretakers the last few months.

There will be a private service for the family. Fielden Funeral Home is honored to serve the Goldsmith family.

“ My heart is hurting so bad right now over this. The past 2 years of getting to know Mrs. Gail at work has been a blessing. She was a friend, co -worker, a mentor, and my kids bus driver. I was even blessed enough to get to do her hair one time. She was an AMAZING woman! I told her she is who I wanted to grow up to be. Gail Goldsmith, you are missed way more than you will ever know. Love you! All my prayers are with the family.

Thank you so much for such a sweet post, Stacey. I will make sure my father-in-law sees this. It means a lot to us.
