“ Frances made the command “love thy neighbor” very easy. I had the privilege of being her neighbor for 30 years and she was the best neighbor anyone could hope for. Frances had a green thumb and taught my wife many lessons about growing flowers, gardening and country living. Frances’s yard was always spectacular And she was in a constant battle with the moles. We would joke about which of our lawns had more moles! She would call my daughters on the phone and say “come on down girls. We’re making ice cream”. And my girls would sprint to Frances’s porch and eat ice creams and watch the river. Her laughter was infectious and I can hear it now. She will be missed. Joel

I grew up with Frances and Rily, Gail and David. They were family to us. We had a lot of good times at their house and playing in the river, and driving around at the dam after church with Gail driving the station wagon. What wonderful memories! My prayers and thoughts are with Gail and David. Frances will be missed but she is reunited with Riley. Thank you God.
