“ Ms Frances was my Sunday school teacher and continued to teach me years beyond my youth. She always told anyone that would listen how I learned the books of the Bible faster than anyone! She always told me how special I was to her - she was so precious to everyone!

The volunteers of FBCDandridge who help with Wednesday morning services at Jefferson Park we're so blessed to get to know Miss Frances. We could readily see her love of Jesus Christ and feel the impact her life had on others in her church family and community. As that expression goes so truthfully, while we mourn her loss, it is Heaven's gain to welcome her home.

I work at Jefferson Park where Mrs. Frances lived and I loved her dearly. She was such a Godly woman and she lit up the whole room with her smile. I miss her so much and my hall isn't the same without her. Until we meet again my sunshine. I love you.
