“ Heaven has been honored with a very, very special angel and man of God. It is a major loss to this old world. I have no doubt that Gordon is dancing on those streets of pure gold and I can almost hear that lion roar! I loved this brother with all my heart and will surely miss him and his awesome preaching! Hope, baby you know I would be there, if i possibly could! I just hate that I'm not there to support you and celebrate Gordon's life here and his graduation to that beautiful city he so wanted to go to. I love you lady, you best know that! And please know that I am still, and always will be, hear for you anytime, day or night. Much, much love and many prayers baby!

“ Gordon was a precious man of God. I will never forget him because he preached the message on the morning that I was saved back in 1986. He also preached when my oldest son was saved on another occasion. I will forever be grateful for Gordon's service to the work of our Lord. Prayers for the family.

“ Landis (Scrappy) and I are so sorry to hear of Brother Gordon’s passing. We treasure our memories of the times that Gordon, Hope, and the children came to Manchester Pentecostal Church. I think one of the folks in our group has a hilarious picture of Jonathan after he had enjoyed a plate of spaghetti. We always looked forward to hearing Brother Gordon preach, and knew that he would bring a powerful and encouraging word from God. Our condolences to Hope, Jonathan, Jennifer, and all the family, and prayers for God’s comfort during this time of heartbreak.
