Karen, Barbara and Susan , I am so sorry to read the news about Jimmy. He was a sweetheart. So sorry that I have not contacted you about all the other loss that you have had. I love this family dearly and think about all of you often. I live over 200 miles away and have only been back twice. I no you will take care of each other just like you always have. I will be with you in thought and prayers. Love to all
