“ *To all of the Humbard family. I am so sorry for all you are going through , I hope you can find peace knowing he is no longer suffering , and remembering what a great man he was. He was always so sweet and soft spoken , I always had respect for him since the first time I met him , but even more knowing the love he had for his country. (I remember him being at a ballgame for his grandson and everyone standing for the National Anthem , I looked over and saw this big , strong man with tears running down his face , Bless him for his service and bless his family in the coming days. Love you all ,
