“ I couldn't help but remember mine and Johnny's first day of school. He hadn't been away from his mom. He was in the "boys" line, while I was in the "girls" line. He had a handkerchief over his eyes. I was afraid he would fall. So I went to the "boys" line to help him. The teacher was not happy with me and I got a spanking. But I would do it all over again.

He sure loved his family and took care of his mom. When I found out he had ask The Lord to save him I was so beyond thankful. He is with the Lord now. Where his other 2 brothers and one sister is at. I love each one of you. Johnathan I don't need to tell you this but your dad was prouder of you than anything. Dear Sweet Dorothy, Four out of five children she has had to bury. May God bless and help all through this. It's coming to all of us. Just please be ready to go. There will be a reunion day. I am not going to miss it and pray those who read this doesn't miss it either. Heaven gained one of the best when he took Johnny. Our loss is Heaven's gain!

Amen Margaret Cooper. Praying for the family. He was a really great man. Always had a smile on his face whenever I ran into him. Jonathon this is one of the hardest things in life to face but knowing that he was saved is the best. His eyes always lit up when he mentioned you. To be absent in the body is to be present with the Lord what a day!!! Stay strong and be a rock for your mom. Love y'all!!!!
