“ We didn't know each other for long but you and Kimmy helped me with alot of situations and you were a really good friend/brother to someone I was very close to at the time. You're gonna be missed bro.

“ As an older brother many times I thought I was the older sister bailing you out all the time or always feeding you. Just holding you while you're drunk failing in bushes and all at the beach. I have so many memories with you and don't even know what my favorite one would be I just know I loved you and now life's going to be differently

“ I rember when we were kids and Johnathan, Victoria, and Christians grandmother and grandfather live next door to us they would always come over and hang out with us. You always had a smile, and would help anyone. You will be missed. Rest in peace.

“ Where do I even begin... best one I got is watching you stand in the middle while your buddy does a drift circle around you!! Or showing out side by side at car shows(sorry I beat you that day 🤔🤔🤔) or the time at Sparks when your whole crew piled on top of the Miata during limbo just to get a little lower under the pole There won't be a show from here on out, that you won't be thought of. We will always miss you for sure.
