

Kay E. Moody

July 18, 1952 - December 18, 2025

Kay E. Moody, age 73, of New Market, Tennessee, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Thursday, December 18, 2025.

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. - II Timothy 4:7

Kay was born on July 18, 1952, in Jefferson City, Tennessee, to the late Charlie and Betty Poore. Kay was a 1970 graduate of Jefferson High School, where she proudly played on the girls' basketball team. Kay continued her education at Carson-Newman College, earning both her bachelor's and master's degrees in education.

From an early age, Kay felt a calling to teach—a calling she faithfully lived out for more than 30 years in public education. Most of her career was spent teaching sixth-grade science at Jefferson Middle School. Kay left a lasting impression on countless students, families, and colleagues. In addition to her work in education, Kay also worked for over 20 years at Wal-Mart and later at the Carson-Newman College bookstore following her retirement. Whether in the classroom or the workplace, Kay had a remarkable gift for connecting with people. Many lives were touched by her kindness and encouragement.

Kay was a faithful member of Mill Springs Baptist Church and lived her life grounded in her love for Christ. She was an avid Jefferson County High School and University of Tennessee sports fan, especially cheering on the Lady Vols.

She is survived by her sons, Jim (Lindsey) Berry and Jake (Alicia) Berry; her sister, Pam Jett; her brother, C.W. Bill Poore; and her grandchildren, Drew Berry, Kaitlin (Bradley) Battin, Reagan Berry, and J.T. Green.

In addition to her parents, Kay was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Fain Moody. Fain was Kay's high school sweetheart, and after many years apart, the two reconnected later in life and were joined in marriage—a reflection of God's perfect timing and enduring love.

A Celebration of Life Service will be held on Sunday, December 28th, at Mill Springs Baptist Church with Dr. Greg Lindsey officiating. The family will receive friends from 2-3 pm with a celebration of life service following at 3 pm. A private burial service will be held at Jefferson Memorial Garden. Fielden Funeral Home is honored to serve the Moody family.

“ Kay was a wonderful friend and I will miss her terribly. She was one of the kindest people and really cared for everyone. I was speaking with someone today who I did not realize knew Kay. They were telling me how she frequently messaged to check on their child who is ill.

She was a Godly woman and is now spending eternity in Heaven, where she will never suffer again!
