A Personal message from Levi's Wife, Kara:

I pray that whenever you go hunting or fishing, find a shark tooth, or drink a cup coffee, you think of Levi and the life he lived. He would want everyone to know Jesus as their Lord and Savior.

As many have said "live like Levi". Take risks, live for the Lord, love your family, be a giver and a doer.

Thank you to everyone who has prayed or supported us in one way or another. We love you all.

“ I will always remember Levi at church as a well behaved, quiet boy that always had a grin and sparkle in his eye. Respectful to his parents and looked up to his older brother. All these years, Ive been Facebook creaping watching him grow into a man with boys of his own -proud he turned out so well. So shocking he left us so young. God must have needed him for something really important. -Love Kathy Stover former member and Sunday School Teacher of Sweet Home Baptist Church Maben WV.
