

Linda Cordell Wolfenbarger

September 4, 1946 - April 12, 2026

Linda Cordell Wolfenbarger, age 79, passed away on Sunday, April 12, 2026. She was a member of various Church of Christ congregations over the years to include Walnut Street Church of Christ in Dickson, Laurel and Norwood Church of Christ in Knoxville. She was a 1964 graduate of Knoxville's Central High School. Linda worked for Lavidge & Associates for 19 years.

She is preceded in death by her father, John Cordell and mother Elizabeth "Becky" Frost Cordell.

Linda is survived by her daughter, Rachel Crawley, son-in-law, CWO5 Kent Crawley USMC (Ret.); grandchildren, Hannah, Grace, and Jay; and brother, Terry A. Cordell (Helen).

The family would like to thank Charter Senior Living – Memory Care for providing loving care and kindness and to April Shipley for her love, patience, and care.

Honoring Linda's wishes, she will be laid to rest at Greenwood Cemetery in Knoxville. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to Proverbs 12:10 Animal Rescue at proverbsrescue1210.org.

Fielden Funeral Home is honored to serve the Wolfenbarger family.

“ Linda was amazing. We got to know her while at Pasquo Church of Christ. We loved her, such a lovely lady and oh so funny! She gave me the best dessert recipe, which every time I make it I think of her, always have. Our sincerest condolences go out to Terry/Helen and her daughter/grandchildren. Victoria&Riq Lazarus

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you. My memories of your mom go all the way back to the seventies and The Village Vendors. Many years later we would see her at all the Central High School football games. She was so proud of you and the grandchildren. May God comfort you.
