

Lou Ann Bentley

February 11, 1938 - December 18, 2024

Lou Ann Bentley, age 86, of New Market passed away on December 18, 2024, at her home with family by her side. She was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother: and she was so excited to welcome an expected new great-great grandson. She was a wonderful friend to many. She was very strong in her faith, an example to all that came to know her. She was actively involved in her church, New Market Baptist. She was involved with many groups within the church such as Women on Missions, Unique Antiques, Operation Christmas Child and will be missed by her church family. Never missing an opportunity to serve, she spent many years volunteering at Appalachian Outreach. Lou Ann was preceded in death by her loving husband Richard "Dick" Bentley; daughter Michele; granddaughter Brianna, 8 siblings, and many special friends. Lou Ann is survived by her children Michael, Suzanne, and Edward (Tracey), son in law Pat; grandchildren Lee Ann, Kathy, Nick, Ryan, Amanda, Austin, Ashley, and Eddy; great grandchildren, Victoria, Alex, Garret, Grant, Jayden, Amara, and Alivia; expected great-great grandson Hudson; brother Wayne; many nieces and nephews; and special friend Anne. Memorial service will be held Saturday, January 4, 2025, 2:00pm at New Market Baptist Church, New Market, TN with Dr. J.W. Taylor officiating. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Fielden Funeral Home. Fielden Funeral Home is honored to serve the Bentley family.
