Brother you are gone now from our lives, but not from our memories. We played in them hills of Tuckahoe alot when we were kids. Shared a lot in a lot fun times and experienced a whole lot of hardships. I know where your heart was when you passed and I know where you are now. You will never truly be gone as you will always be intertwined in our hearts and lives. Love you!

“ You were loved, you are loved. Death cannot diminish love, it only makes it sweeter. Memories will one day not hurt so bad, but make us smile. Rest in our Heavenly Father's arms. You are loved. Love, Dusti, Scott, Landon, and Brystal
