He did raise him as his kid but he wasn't blood related, I don't mean this in any disrespectful way but it's the truth

Takes more than blood to be a dad...my god

God had nothing to do with this, and yes he was a hell of a father especially when the boy wasn't of his blood, that in itself shows what kind of a father he was he will be remembered

Orlando was as tough as they come and he had a big heart of gold! He had the utmost respect for his mother and father. He was a very loyal friend. He was honest and hard working. Rest in peace with the angels brother 🙏 Many prayers for the Crespo family. 🙏

Me and Orlando became friends the moment he arrived from Connecticut. We were teammates on the basketball team and I will never forget him dropping that barbell on his neck with about 200 lbs on it. It didn't hurt Orlando....just bent the bar. Orlando was a trip and I loved him.
