“ Marcie I will miss our time together. Just you and I sitting around the kitchen table.As you spoke, It was like I was listening to the book of Proverbs and hanging on to your every word. You would talk about your ups and downs in life and the choices you made both bad and good but most importantly you would talk about our Lord Jesus . How much you Love Him and depended on Him every day of your life. You are genuine example of real life faith lived out through the power of Jesus Christ. I love you and will miss you very much. But I know in my heart you are with are Lord Jesus forever. And one day the family of God will all be together. Come Lord Jesus come. Love always Greg.

“ In this picture mom said she would miss my kisses but I too will miss your kisses mom. ❤️ I didn't want to leave my heart wanted to stay and be with you. To play our card games, to read our devotionals and reminiscence about you growing up and your love for Jesus. Even though I know you are with our Savior I feel I have a big part of me missing. You're legacy and love will forever live in my heart mom. I miss you so much 🥺🥺❤️
