

Milburn Wright Seal

January 4, 2017

Milburn Wright Seal, 94, of Alpharetta GA, passed away on Wednesday, January 4, 2017. Mr. Seal was born in Hancock County Tennessee and raised in Strawberry Plains before entering the war. Post war he and his wife moved to Los Angeles, Ca in 1963 where he served as VP of Valley Carpet company before taking the position of area property manager for Synvesco Management in the Los Angeles area, he retired in Atlanta in 1998 at the age of 78.

Mr. Seal was a decorated World War II veteran holding the rank of Communications Sargent who was awarded among other medals the Bronze Star for Heroism. He was Deacon and member of the choir at several Baptist Churches throughout his life and was currently a member of Wallace Memorial Baptist Church in Knoxville.

Mr Seal was an avid Tennessee Volunteer and Atlanta Braves fan, he also enjoyed watching tennis and basketball. He was a beloved father and friend and will be sorely missed.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife of 57 years, Ethel Christine Seal; parents, Marion and Bertha Seal; sisters, Alma, Buna, Venus and Velva; brothers, Homer and Grant; sons, Dennis and Wayne Seal; and grandson, Dustin Seal.

He is survived by son, Tim Seals of Alpharetta Ga; grandchildren, Barbara Seal of Alcoa, Scott Seal of Knoxville, Sarah Pittman of Maryville, Michelle Mears of Knoxville, Mckinley Wright Seals of Whitefish Montana; and several great grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Graveside service 11:00 AM Wednesday, January 11, 2016 at Beaver Creek Cemetery. Arrangements by Fielden Funeral Home in New Market.

Cemetery Details

Beaver Creek Cemetery

845 Beaver Creek Road
Strawberry Plains, TN 37871

Previous Events

Graveside Service

JAN 11. 11:00 AM (ET)

Beaver Creek Cemetery
845 Beaver Creek Road
Strawberry Plains, TN 37871