“ Ole Mae was one of the sweetest women I have ever known. She loved her family with her whole heart and soul. I will forever remember her walking down the road between the houses to check on Bella and bring her her egg and cheese biscuits for breakfast. Ole Mae always made you feel welcome at her home and her smile was contagious. She will be missed her on this earth but she is at home in heaven with her daughters now and what a reunion that must have been!! My prayers and thoughts go out to her family and friends! A poem comes to my mind by James Whiteomb Riley She is just a way:

*I can not say, and I will not say
That she is dead, she is just away
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
She has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be since she lingers there
And you-oh you, who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and the glad return
Think of her fairing on, as dear
In the love of there, as the love of here
Think of her still as the same, I say
She is not dead-she is just away*
