

Peggy Sue Patterson

May 17, 1933 - January 8, 2024

Peggy Sue Patterson, age 90, passed away at her home in Strawberry Plains on Monday, January 8, 2024. She was married to Billy Ray Patterson for over 65 years and was a lifelong member of Caledonia Presbyterian Church. She was the youngest child of Charles and Cordie Ellis, preceded in death by her parents and siblings Charles Jr., James, and Barbara.

Peggy and Billy Ray produced children; Kim Patterson (wife Sharon) of Knoxville and Pam McCullough (husband Jim) of Franklin, TN. survived also by grandson Brannon and great-granddaughter Olivia of Knoxville. Peggy was a proud and devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother.

Peggy's passion was serving children, especially those with special needs. During her employment with Knox County Schools, she worked as a classroom assistant and drove a school bus. Because of her love for the students, she worked until she was 80 years old.

Due to the inclement weather, the services have changed as follows: Family will receive friends at Caledonia Presbyterian Church 7817 N Ruggles Ferry Pike, Knoxville, TN 37924 on Tuesday, January 23rd at 6:00 p.m. with a Celebration of Life service to follow at 7:00 pm with Pastor Dennis Maxey officiating. The graveside service will be on Wednesday, January 24th at 10:00 a.m. at Caledonia Cemetery. Fielden Funeral Home is honored to serve the Patterson family.

“ I loved Peggy! And I will miss her so much. I'm sorry I cannot be there for you, but I am still snowed in on this dead end lane. Peggy was a friend who was just like family to me. She said whatever she wanted and never held back. And always accurate until the end of her life. She never forgot a birthdate. Be happy she is with her Bill, whom she missed so much.
