

Rhonda McCoy Nivinski

July 8, 1976 - September 11, 2024

Rhonda McCoy Nivinski, age 48, of Rutledge, went home to be with the Lord Wednesday, September 11, 2024. Rhonda was valedictorian of her graduating class at Carson-Newman University. She served as a lead coach and trainer for Mutual of Ohama Insurance Company. She was a longtime member of Mill Springs Baptist Church where she loved to sing and worship. Preceded in death by her father, Rev. John E. McCoy. She will be greatly missed by her husband, Dan Nivinski; her beloved son, Landon Nivinski; mother, Joan McCoy; brother, Dr. Neil McCoy and wife Melissa; sister, Jessica McCoy; niece, Rachel McCoy, a host of aunts, uncles, and cousins.

In lieu of flowers donations should be sent in memory of Rhonda to Chic Awareness www.chicawareness.org an annual fundraising event for ovarian cancer research. Rhonda was the first mentee of Woman to Woman (W2W), a mentoring program that has had a positive impact for patients going through ovarian cancer treatment. Rhonda was grateful for the support offered by the program at Vanderbilt-Ingram Cancer Center.

The Celebration of Life service will be held at noon on Saturday, September 14th at Mill Springs Baptist Church with Dr. Greg Lindsey officiating. The family will receive friends 10:00 am until 12:00 pm prior to the service. Interment to follow in the church cemetery. Fielden Funeral Home is honored to serve the family of Rhonda McCoy Nivinski.
