“ Rest In Peace Uncle Roger! To my mom Wanda, her siblings, his wife and children, I know this will be one of the most difficult things to endure but always try and remember the Life he lived and enjoyed. It's a great loss to the entire Family but he should always be remembered in the Greatest of Lights as he will now Shine Forever! Carry him in your hearts and take him wherever life takes you. My deepest sorrow and condolences to you all.

“ My dad was a special person he was kind to everyone but if you made him mad he was mad he was a hard worker his whole life us kids never wanted for anything when we were growing up we weren't rich but we weren't poor either. No matter what he was always there for us through the good and bad he was an amazing paw-paw to my children and my sisters children.

“ I always think of all my cousins that Aunt Kitten helped raise....all 13 of us...first her own children Susie, Cecile, Shirley and Denny then Uncle Ed's kids...Curtis, Roger, Betty, Wanda and Eugene ...then there was me and my siblings during the summer...Teresa, Regina, Bobby and Ricky...it was fun and trying times....but we once was all together...I miss those days and the people that have gone on to Heaven from those days.....
