“ I just heard is Ryan’s passing!😞 He was our favorite bartender and server we followed him when he left Applebees. He was so much fun and so cheerful! It hurts our hearts today to know we will never get to see his smile again! From his friends Getz and Derosia Family

“ Gladys, so sorry to hear of your unforeseen & sudden loss of Ryan. Praying God will comfort you & Ayden. We KNOW GOD WILL CARRY YOU THRU THIS. I'm sure you'll have many adjustments, as you surrender more & more to Jesus. You have a whole church & many friends lifting you to the Father at times you need Him most. John & I will be on that list.
We saw Ryan a couple of years ago in Pigeon Forge & he was his sweet, friendly, self. He appeared to be enjoying his work. We don't understand, but God sees the BIG picture. Continue to trust & serve Jesus. We love you!

“ I am so very sorry for the loss his family suddenly had to endure. I didn't get to sign his book at his service, but please know our hearts are with all of you. Ryan and I went to school together. And then he met my 17 year old and found out I was his mom. We all reconnected again, because Ryan did what Ryan does. He cared, and watched out for my son, made sure he ate while he was working and became like another uncle to him. He will be missed by Andrew, my son as well as Richard and I. ❤️

“ Sending sincere condolences to Ryan’s family and friends. He has God’s love in his heart! I knew him from Calhouns. He was sure to have a smile and say hello, as he was checking the scores of the college football games:-). He will be missed!

“ Ryan was one of those I looked forward to see. We both loved and talked college football. What gives me peace is I know there is a Heaven and he had Gods love in his heart. All of us are made of matter and when matter dies it turns into energy and energy never dies! That’s how I know there is a Heaven! We’ll all see him one day.

“ My son passed away 5/16/22 he was only 22. When Ryan would see me at work he was the only one to get me out of the funk I was in. Always smiling and telling everyone at work “only 12 more hours” he was always smiling and cracking jokes! Always made everyone top priority when he was around you! He will be missed so bad!
