

Samuel Lukas Lowe

March 27, 1994 - January 6, 2022

Samuel “Lukas” Lowe, age 27, of Dandridge, passed away on January 6, 2022, and was carried by the Lord to the heavens with a smile on his face. Luke had made many mistakes in his life, but he had rededicated his life 4 plus years ago. He was a faithful servant of the Lord and testified to many spreading the word of God in the hopes that lost souls would be saved. He felt that was his duty as a Christian. Luke cherished his family, friends and all animals tremendously. Luke also loved music. He was always singing and playing his guitar if he didn’t have a cat or dog in his arms.

He was preceded in death by his father, Shurrel Lowe, great-grandfather, Luther “Bud” Brownlow Campbell; aunt, Linda “Wendy” Susan (Bill) Buckner; uncles, Phillip E. Denton and Samuel Moyers.

He is survived by his mother, Judy F. Lowe; birth-mother, Judy “Jo” Ramey; sister, Ronny R. Rainwater; brother, Sethry Ty Ramey; grandmother, Bobbie Lou Campbell; most special aunt, Mary Lois Hopkins; great-aunts, Wanda Mae Hancock and Kimberly (Tom) Myers; best friend, Jeton Aybara Brogan; special family members, Fred and Barbara Elder and their daughter, Katie; several cousins; and his beloved pets.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that memorial donations may be made to: The Spay Neuter Project at P.O. Box 241 Dandridge, TN 37725.

The family will hold a private graveside service at a later date. Arrangements by Fielden Funeral Home in New Market.

“ I enjoyed the times you and I spent sitting on my back porch, talking, laughing, and joking around.
My lawnmowers' torn up again; this I thought you would like to know.
I tried to start it today on the day you were put in the ground and realized, I no longer have my very special friend to help me fix it one more time.
I shed a tear for me when I look toward the starry sky because I know you're there and I'm still here.
I fished with you when you were 2 years of age, for the first time, one day soon we'll be sitting on a bank fishing again.
I love you Luke.
You were more than just a friend of my family, you were my family!!!
Love;

“ Samuel Lukas Lowe, or Tk to me and our gaming community, was my best friend; like a brother to me. TK and I met on an old video game from the 90s based off The Wheel of Time. We bonded because we were both homeschooled. TK taught me how to play guitar and sing via webcam. He was one of the brightest and warmest souls to grace this world. Lukas was the kind of person to give you the shirt off his back and every dollar in his pocket to help you get through a hard day. I love him like a brother. I feel lost without him in the world. The world is a little darker, and a little colder without his flame. I take it upon myself to carry that flame, as many of his loved ones will. In his name my guitar will sing forever. Lukas has a deep soul and experienced pain in life that most men would have given up on. I take some solace in the thought that he is with his love now, and with god. There will be a hole in my heart for this man until the day it stops beating. On that day I will have a few stern words for God, for taking my best friend away so soon. I love you so much Tk... May God rest your beautiful soul.
