“ Shirley's mom and my papaw were brother and sister and we would go to grandma and grandpaw Hubbards house on Sundays and a lot of times Shirley and Pauline would be there and I have so many memories of those two classy ladies. I love you Shirley and you will always be remembered.

“ The Dash by Linda Ellis

*I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of a friend.
He referred to the dates on the tombstone from the beginning to the end.
He noted first came the date of the birth and spoke the following date with tears.
But he said what mattered most of all was the dash between the years.
For that dash represents all the time that they spent life on Earth.
And now only those who loved them know what that little line is worth.
For it matters not how much we own,
the cars, the house, the cash.
What matters is how we live and love,
and how we spend our dash.
So, think about this long and hard.
Are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left that can still be rearranged.
If we could just slow down enough to consider what's true and real,
and always try to understand the way other people feel.
And be less quick to anger,
and show appreciation more,
and love the people in our lives
like we've never loved before.
If we treat each other with respect and more often wear a smile, remembering that this special dash might only last a little while.
So, when your eulogy is being read with your life's actions to rehash,*

would you be proud of the things they say about how you spent your dash?

“ Shirley was a dear and special friend. We went through 12 years of school together. We lost touch through the years as we were raising our family, but reunited 10 years ago getting together at least once a month for dinner or party. It was like no time had passed at all. Shirley was so much fun and the life of the party. She will be sadly missed! Rest in peace, our dear friend. Shirley A and June A
