Obituary for Stuart L. (Rabbit) Davis February 10, 1961-April 8, 2021
Davis, Stuart Layne (Rabbit) Davis of Kennesaw, Georgia, formerly of New Market, TN , age 60, fulfilled his earthly mission in Augusta, GA, after a battle with complications of Covid. Stuart grew up in New Market, TN, where he proved early in life his quick speed in all his athletic endeavors. His father, John Tex Davis aptly nicknamed his youngest son Rabbit, a name he wore with pride for life. His athletic ability and keen mind were quite evident in his Morristown West High School year from 1976-1979. Following high school, Stuart graduated from Tennessee Tech graduating in 1984 with a degree in accounting. He owned and operated his own asphalt business serving many municipalities and counties in Florida and Georgia. A disciplined hard worker, Stuart put in long hours working with his crew and and was a boss who took care of his crew in every way. All who knew Stuart appreciated his wisdom and love for God. He had a quick wit and was such a power house of information in healthy life choices, personal finances, and politics, but his devotion to the scriptures and ability to point a troubled soul in the right direction provided a path to salvation to many who sought his advice. He is the perfect example of a good Christian servant to his family, friends, and community. Welcoming him to his eternal reward for his years of service and sacrifice on Earth are his older brother Stanley and his parents John Tex and Reva Presson Davis. He is survived by his oldest brother John Steven Davis of New Market. He also is survived by his Aunts Carol Page and Cynthia Hewgley as well as his Uncle Alan Dean (Julia) Presson and several cousin. Stuart Rabbit Davis leaves a host of friends and associates who will forever appreciate his heart of gold. He counseled so many in his knowledge of scripture and our duty to walk the Earth in humble service to others always putting ourselves last. He most definitely has been welcomed to his Eternal Home hearing our dear Lord say to him, "Well done, my good and faithful servant!" A private memorial service will be held in Camden, TN, where Stuart will be laid to rest with his dear parents and brother.
