“ I am so sad for the loss of Jane. I admired Jane for her strength and courage. She always put family first. Jane was the same every time you saw her, so full of joy, laughter, and love. Her laughter was contagious! Boyd, Kala, Judy, Terry and families, hope you can find some comfort through the wonderful memories you made with Jane. I am sending my thoughts, prayers, and love to you the family. Love you all, Kim Phillips

“ Jane was a beautiful woman, inside and out! I knew her from school, and I worked with Boyd at the Chevrolet dealership in Morristown. I visited with them at the hospital when Kala was born. She & her baby were both beautiful that day! My thoughts and prayers are with her family during this most difficult time. May God be with you all.
