“ my loving momma, I miss you so much but I know your doing so much better. I hope them angels know how much of a angel you was and always will be. life is hard without you... but also I know you are right here with me, and will always listen to my stories about my good and bad days. bubba has been going through hard times. without you as well he has been getting in trouble at school like I did last year and that's just not him. i remember when you had no money broke, but you would always always make sure me and my brothers had anything everything we needed or just wanted I love and miss you so much I hope heaven is the best place for you witch it is your with our heavenly father above. I know our real dad was not the best person for us but we had you and Stevie. I've had a song about how scott was its " the man who came back" by Jessie Murph even tho he never came back you and mamaw raised us to be successful.

“ I grew up with Tiff and thru the years life strays you away.. but last year when both our boys played football we picked back up like time had stood still. She got to meet my kids and I got to meet hers. It was wonderful. I know she had battled her health for a long time. I'm glad she is at peace now and no longer hurting. She was a life long friend and I will cherish that. ❤️ Sending luv to her kiddos and family.
