It is with great sadness that I tell you my greatest treasure on earth, my husband, Vernon William Clevenger, age 83, of Jefferson City, went home to his Lord and Savior on October 7, 2024. He died with me holding him in my arms as he took his last breath. Born June 27, 1941, to his mom and dad, Rose and Ralph Clevenger of Jefferson City.

Vernon was a member and attended Calvary Baptist Church in Jefferson City until his illness prevented him from attending. He also was a former employee of New Jersey Zinc Mines and retired from Lear Seigler in Morristown.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Rose and Ralph Clevenger; brothers, Jr. and Stevie Clevenger; daughter and son-in-law, Brenda & Robert Denton; son-in-law, Randy Buckner; grandsons, Shannon Trent and David Denton; and great grandson, Aiden Trent.

Vernon is survived by his loving wife of 20 years whom he cherished, Sandra Johnson Clevenger; daughters, Patricia Buckner, Priscilla (Melvin) Trent, and Glenda Clevenger; sisters, Wanda Slone and Wilma Johnson; brothers, Wayne (Barb) and Fayne (Tina); granddaughters, Carla (Harold) Morgan, Kim (Johnny) Hendricks, and Jessica Patterson; grandsons, Michael Trent and Lewis Chamberlain; 21 great grandchildren; 10 great-great grandchildren; and a host of friends.

I want to thank my brother, William Johnson, for helping me over the last 3 ½ years. With his help, he made it possible for me to care for Vernon in our home. Also, a special thanks to Leslie, Rachel and Garrett and all the Amedisys Hospice Care Team.
