“ My name is Connie "Kerr" Goddard. I am so sorry to hear about Vickie. We went to school together, plus "Squint" (her precious dad) worked for my Mom (Judy Nichols) and Hood Nichols (step father) at Nichols Poultry Farm. My prayers and thoughts are with all of you. Also, Brandi is friends with my daughter, Susie Hinchey Petrucelli. God bless Vickie's family during this tragic loss and time.

“ Momma I don't even know what to say. I've tried this many times to just delete it because it wasn't good enough for my mother. You made me a survivor. But how do I grasp the concept your no longer here. My strength came from you. I watched you struggle raising three beautiful stubborn little girls. How you didn't kill us I don't know between the 5am wakeup calls (which we didn't get up) to the 3pm bickering in the car. You nevered raised your voice at us. You simple stayed quiet. We knew we held your heart and we knew we could get by with just about everything. We watch you work sick or not and we never done without anything. You shaped me into the hard working woman I'm now. You were always so proud of me. I triedy hardest at life and school because I knew it made you proud. I've only felt like I disappointed you twice in life. Once when I got caught skipping school. You never said a word just simply brought me home. It killed me to disappoint you. It kills me now the second time I feel I disappointed you. Why did you have to make us so stubborn? All of your girls are. I'm so sorry that I'll never be able to earn your forgiveness. But rest in heaven knowing I still need you momma. I'll always need my mother. When I get to heaven momma I'll make it up to you some how some way. Till then momma watch over me and help me become half the woman you are. Your little Suzzanne will carry you in my heart forever. I love you mommy. I am glad your not in pain anymore. Heaven has gain a beautiful angel.
