Aunt Violet and Uncle Norman were a very important and a well loved part of the family. Aunt Violet loved to laugh. She loved to watch the Atlanta Braves play baseball. She was a wonderful mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. She was a member of the Strawberry Plains Presbyterian Church all her life. Her parents, Arley and Flora Beard passed on the love of God to her at an early age and on the day she passed away, the family stood by her bedside and sang hymns to her while she waited patiently to "go home to see her sweetheart Norman." She had no doubt in her mind that she would be reunited with him and all her loved ones in heaven.
