“ One of my sweetest memories were the days that my family lived next door to the Ballingers. I remember being two or three years old and running across the yard to see "Mr. Ballinger" when he came home from work. He always gave me and my brother and sister a stick of gum. He made us all feel special and loved.

“ We all loved Mr. Armon & so sorry to hear about this. I didn't know Armon very well, but I did Jean quite well as my aunt Mildred (Elmore) Lowery would speak about how special Armon & Ms. Jean meant to her. We pray that the Lord Jesus Christ send a special comfort to the loved ones ❤️❤️❤️ , we all think a lot of this family 🕊️🦋
